

KINNEIL RECYCLING CENTRE

1. Glass - clear and brown
2. Glass - green and blue
3. Food and drinks cans
4. Paper
5. Plastic bottles and trays
6. Large domestic plastics
7. Fridges and freezers
8. Textiles (including shoes)
9. Bicycles
10. Mattresses
11. TV's and monitors
12. Rubble
13. Soil
14. Plasterboard
15. Vehicle batteries
16. Domestic batteries
17. Light bulbs
18. Cardboard
19. Mineral oil
20. Gas bottles
21. Upholstered furniture and bed bases
22. Tyres
23. Carpets
24. Garden waste
25. Garden waste
26. Road sweepers (Council use only)
27. Small electrical appliances
28. Scrap metal
29. Wood
30. Wood
31. Non recyclable household waste
32. Non recyclable household waste
33. Non recyclable household waste
34. Cardboard

RECYCLABLES AND THEIR USES

Batteries (car)

Parts reclaimed and used in new batteries

Batteries (domestic)

Broken down and recycled

Bicycles

Passed to local enterprise and refurbished where possible

Books

Passed to local charity

Upholstered furniture and bed bases

Parts recycled and recovered (where possible)

Food and drinks cans

Recycled into new cans

Cardboard

Recycled by cardboard recycling company

Carpets (rugs, tiles underlay)

Recycled (where possible)

Garden waste

Composted

Gas bottles

Returned to gas supply companies

Glass

Recycled into new glass

Electrical goods

Recycled

Light bulbs

Recycled

Mattresses

Parts recycled (where possible)

Mineral oil

Cleaned and used as heating oil

Paper

Recycled by paper company

Plastic bottles and large domestic plastics

Recycled into new plastic containers and materials

Plasterboard

Recycled into new plasterboard and byproducts

Rubble

Broken down into hardcore

Metal

Recycled by metal reprocessor

Soil

Used for restoration purposes

Textiles and books

Passed onto local charities

Tyres

Shredded to be used as fuel or mixed with aggregate

Wood

Used for the manufacture of chipboard or as a fuel