

Barking Dogs- Remedial Action- Process

Civic Government (Scotland) Act 1982 Section 49(2) DANGEROUS/ANNOYING CREATURE (S)

The above legislation requires that the complainant presents their case to the Justice of the Peace Court, Main Street, Camelon, FK1 4AR.

Accordingly, please find a form of application, requesting a Court Hearing.

This particular piece of legislation concerns “dangerous or annoying creatures”. If a hearing is fixed and sufficient evidence heard, the Court has power to make an Order requiring the owner of the creature to cease the Danger/Annoyance.

When completing the application form, you will be required to complete the full name and address of the dog-owner, as well as completing boxes 1, 2, 3 and 4. Box 4 in particular should give specific details of the danger/annoyance being caused.

It is recommended that you consult a Solicitor when completing the application form, particularly Box 4. Legal Aid is not available for this type of case; therefore a Solicitor may not be eligible for the Legal Advice and Assistance Scheme in completing the form itself. You should be prepared to bring witnesses to Court to substantiate your claim.

Should you require any further information in respect of this process please contact Clerk to the Justice of the Peace Court, Tel 01324 620822.
